

Dr. Kalikow will review the psychiatric medicines most commonly prescribed to children and adolescents, including the stimulants and other medicines for Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder, the selective serotonin reuptake inhibitors (SSRIs) for depression and anxiety disorders, the mood stabilizers for bipolar disorder, the sleep medicines and the atypical antipsychotics. Dr. Kalikow will review the benefits, side effects and controversies of each class of medicine.